THE CODE OF CONDUCT

This is the underlying philosophy for cooperation within the school and applies to staff and students, and supports our school in a positive and happy environment.

- Cooperation
- Courtesy
- Consideration
- Communication
- Care

After explicit teaching, these values can be understood by all students, R to 12, and form the basis of our behaviour expectations in the school environment.

These behaviours are serious and not acceptable in the wider community, nor at school. The consequences for these behaviours can vary from suspension, class time out with supervision by Principal and Deputy for one or more days, exclusion from the yard or areas of the yard, community service, case management of yard time out. The school works through the consequence with the student and family to encourage learning of appropriate behaviours and ways of dealing with emotions and future challenges.

2014 Mount Gambier Gun Club Interschool Shoot

This annual High School Competition was again conducted at the Gladigau Road facilities last term in Mount Gambier, with all shooting costs being covered by the Mount Gambier Gun Club.

Senior Allendale East Area students participated in two teams of 5 and after a brief introduction and points of safety were issued, it was down to competition.

Previous experience was not one of our strong points but enthusiasm and willingness to participate shone through as always. Competition was contested over 10 targets and possible future clay target 'Champions' were evident.

Kaneta hitting 6/10 was fantastic, (apart from forgetting all the safety rules, due to excitement).

Jason got 5/10, Billy, Liam and Jock 4/10 - All showed good skill. Alesha, Hameda, Taylor, Sally and Libby all used slightly different techniques to achieve a variety of results in a very difficult sport. Congratulations to these senior students for participating in a fabulous manner.

Sincere thanks to members of the Mount Gambier Gun club who volunteered their time and expertise to assist all students in such a polite, friendly manner.
